Steve Abreu Named Co-chair of SUNSTEIN Trademark Group

SUNSTEIN Trademark Group Receives High Honors from World Trademark Review

Boston, MA – February 6, 2018 - Sunstein Kann Murphy & Timbers LLP, an intellectual property law firm in Boston, is pleased to announce that partner Steve Abreu has been named Co-chair of the Trademark Group, joining Co-chair Lisa Tittlemore in the leadership position. Steve's clients include renowned institutions of higher learning, consumer and medical product companies, media companies, and pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies.

SUNSTEIN is also pleased to announce that its Trademark Group has once again been ranked by the World Trademark Review (WTR) as one of the leading trademark practices in Massachusetts. The ranking reflects recognition by clients and competitors.

The WTR noted, "Sunstein Kann Murphy & Timbers is widely known for its trademark ability and all of its lawyers are superb.' Its branding group has an especially striking command of the pharmaceutical and higher education spaces, although virtually no sector escapes its grasp."

As to the SUNSTEIN group leaders, the WTR further noted, "Renowned in this area of the law and a prominent, active member of the community', Lisa Tittlemore anchors the branding practice . . . 'She is quick to respond, and her business-oriented counsel is clear and easy to understand.' The esteemed Steve Abreu is another principal driver of the group . . . 'He provides excellent litigation advice and efficient trademark protection.' . . . 'As another core member of the set, [Kerry] Timbers inspires confidence in brand owners with his perceptive insight into enforcement and contentious issues.'"
